

Chua Put Moy

Independent Non-Executive Director

Chua Put Moy, a Malaysian, aged 63, is our Independent Non-Executive Director. She was appointed to our Board on 14 September 2018. She is also the Chairman of the Audit and the Risk Management Committee. She has vast experiences in accounting and finance and human resource.

She graduated from the University of Liverpool, United Kingdom in July 1978 with a First Class Honours in Computational and Statistical Sciences. She is currently a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales and the Malaysian Institute of Accountants.

She began her career at Ernst & Young in the United Kingdom from October 1978 to September 1982 as an Audit Executive, before joining PricewaterhouseCoopers in Malaysia as a Qualified Accountant from October 1982 to July 1983. In August 1983, she joined Genting Berhad where she served in various capacities including as the Group Management Accountant and Head Office Personnel & Administration Manager. She also served as a member of the Remuneration & Compensation Board Committees of Genting Berhad, Resorts World Berhad (now known as Genting Malaysia Berhad) and Asiatic Development Berhad (now known as Genting Plantations Berhad), all of which are part of Genting Group. She left Genting Group in 1993 and took a career break until 1995.

In January 1995, she became a consultant on a retainer basis with Organisation Renewal Inc. Sdn Bhd, a company principally involved in strategic change management, as a Regional Project Advisor until September 2002. She subsequently re-joined Genting Group as Senior Vice President of Human Resources and Information Technology of Genting Sanyen Industrial Paper Sdn Bhd. She left Genting Sanyen Industrial Paper Sdn Bhd in June 2004.

She then joined VXL Management Sdn Bhd, which is part of VXL Group, an international investment house, from July 2004 to September 2005 as the Executive Director of the Finance, Investment & Human Resources Division.

From October 2005 until December 2005, she spent some time learning Mandarin at the Tianjin Chinese Language Centre in China. She then joined PricewaterhouseCoopers in Beijing, China in January 2006 where she was the Associate Director of Tax and Advisory Business Development. She left PricewaterhouseCoopers in September 2009.